REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, May 10 .- Having demonstrated and firmly established his absolute control of the American Steel and Wire Company, John W. Gates sailed away to Europe of the Kaiser Friederich this morning. He left the city, having reconstructed the company's management just about as he wanted it, with men of his own selections, in all the executive positions, and with an Executive Committee made up so that he can at all times dominate it. Reconstruction of the management has been brought about by the following changes: Mr. Gates retires as chairman, John Lambert as president and Isaac L Ellwood as chairman of the Executive Committee, Al-1887 the Southern and the St. Louis were consolidated, both Mr. Clifford and Gates taking responsible positions in the managefred Clifford of St. Louis, formerly treasurer, succeeds Mr. Gates as chairman. Edenborn, Palmer, Ellwood, Gates, Lambert, Clifferd and Thomas Bolan. With the exception of the last named all of these men are of the "Gates crowd."

At the meeting at which these changes vere made Messra. Gates, Lambert and Ell wood went through the performance of resigning from the Board of Directors, as well as from the Executive Committee. This action on the part of Messra. Gates and Ellwood was not intended seriously, and at the last moment Mr. Lambert was prevailed upon to remain in the board. The directors therefore refused to allow the three to sever entirely their connection with the com-pany, and, while relieving them of their previous routine duties, elected them to the

Gary Couldn't Accept.

Until just before the foregoing changes were made, Mr. Gates expected to elect President E. H. Gary of the Federal Sicel Company a director of the Steel and Wire Company. On Wednesday Mr. Gary is said to have discovered that he could not go into the board, and it is stated that after this Mr. Lambert was prevailed upon to remain a director. The election of Mr. Morgan to the board is regarded as a compliment to Thomas Dolan, who is his close personal friend. Mr. Dolan is the only one of the so-called "Seligman directors" who remained on the board after Mr. Gates refused to resign. The other new director, Herman Steicken, is a friend of Mr. Gates, and is closely associated with President H. O. Havemyer of the Sugar Trust, who is understood to be a large stockholder in the Steel and Wire Company. Mr. Gates explained to-day that his departure for Europe was due to his appeint-ment to represent the State of Illinois at the Paris Exposition.

George Alfred Lamb, the lawyer who brought criminal charges against Mr. Gates before Magistrata Zeller, made a few complimentary remarks to-day. He said:
"Mr. Gates came to New York with the avowed determination of fighting the proceedings brought against him to a finish and of inflicting drastic punishment upon all of his critics, and especially upon any one who dared to prosecute him. The proceedings brought however, seem to proceedings brought however, have promised more interesting ments than Mr. Gates cared to face, and, midable array of eminent counsel, he has

The story of the settlement of the vast

The development of Siberian industries has been going on for many years, but, always hampered by the distriction of decent men to go out among a lot of convicts, even though these convicts had been deported for political offenses.

In an interview with a representative of the Associated Press, he said: "Having only arrived this morning, I have had no time to learn what change has occurred while I was on the Atlantic, but hasing my opinions on the conditions, which existed when I left, I can say I do not believe any serious reduction in prices will occur in the Iron and steel market. The world's demand shows signs of increasing, rather than decreasing. The recent drep in America was merely a transition from facilitous to real values. Such fall in prices as had been reached was impossible to prove lasting.

"Naturally, if the American Steel and Wire Company insists on refusing to take material for which they contracted, a depressing influence must be felt. But I regard this action and the shutting down of the mills as comparatively unimportant factors, of merely temporary effect, and not in the least likely to result in any serious diminuation of prices or in the production of the world's steel and from market. Joplin, Mo., May 10.—A drop of $2.50 a thousand pounds in lend ore to-day added to the general uneathers in the Missouri-Kansas mining districts. Lend ore previously has not varied to any extent for a year until the big drop to-day. The lend trust is hamed for the decline. Zinc ore, too, is on the decline. The zinc smelters have been steadily hammering down prices for two months, and their action is forcing the mine owners to take some action in self-defense. The result will be the huiding of zinc smelters by the mine owners.

Two propositions are before the Missouri-Kansas Mine Owners Association. One synderic backed by firsten, purposes building eight smelters and contracting for zinc on an assay basis of seven to one; that is to say, it will may seven times the market price of spoiler, as quoted in St. Louis, for one assaying 60 per cent metallic zinc, and will purchase higher and lower grades of zinc ore, according to value, on similar bosis. fucano, Julius E. SUMMED UP BY ROBERTS.

London, May le-To-day's news developments at the front are given in the following dispatches from Lord Roberts: "From Welgeiegen, May 9, evening: Polearea's and Tucker's divisions. Hamilton's column of heavy mayal and royal marrison artillery guns and four brigades of cavalry marched here to-day. The enemy hold the opposite bank of the Zand River. Their trength will be ascertained to-morrow when I hope to be able to force a passage of the river."

"Cable Cart Headquarters, at the front May 10, 9:10 a. m.: We are now across the Zend River. The enemy are still holding a strong position, but we are gradually pushing them back."

"Cable Cart, Zand River, May 10, 12:30 p. m .: The enemy are in full retreat. They eccupied a position twenty miles in length Ours was, necessarily, longer. With the widely scattered force it will take some time to learn the casualties, but I am hopeful we have not suffered much. The cavalry and horse artillery are pursuing the Boers by three different roads."

London, May 11, 4:50 a. m.-Members of the House of Commons were freely betting in the lobbles last evening that Lord Roberts would be in Pretoria in two months. The ministerialists are building confident hopes upon the comprehensive plans he had communicated to the War Office. Predictions are definitely made that he will be in Kroonstad next Monday, and it is believed that his advance is already reconnoitering in the vicinity of Venters, where the hilly country begins again.

Beyond Kroonstad is an intricate and difficult country, and if the Boers should elect to fight it is possible they could check the progress of the British until Lord Roberts's 'numerous cavairy" had had time to ride around their flenk and threaten their rear. From 15,000 to 20,000 is the highest estimate of the Boers under the command of General Boths, who is said to have fortysix guns, and General De Wet, who are reported to have quarreled.

Lord Roberts is pressing hard after this force with 35,000 men and 140 guns, and 20,one more men are easily available.

During a concert for the relief of the suferers from Begbie works explosion, given Saturday evening at Pretoria, in the Galety Theater, the doors were suddenly closed and every man in the audience was commandeered. All the horses were taken from the conveyances outside.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Washington, May 10.-Recent developments in the armor plate controversy have been almost of a startling nature, and the air of mystery or secrecy surrounding cerain phases of the subject have heightened the general interest to such a degree that the practical results may have been lost

"We made the fight against great odds when the matter was before the House, and scarcely expected to have such strong support when the bill went to the other end of the Capitol. But during the last few days meaners of the Senate committee have called on us in the House and assured as that they were as strongly in favor of the proposition as we were, and that they had already adopted it in committee, and that it would pass the Senate. "As soon as it become known that Senators Hale and Chandler were with us, we determined to renew the fight. Senator Tillman was known to be with us, but it had been reported that the other members of the Senate Committee would be against us; and it was supposed that Senator Hanna and the administration would control the Senate Committee would be against us; and it was supposed that Senator Hanna and the senate is not so great as it is in the Republican Convention. What has caused this renewed energy in attacking the armor trust in the Senate? First, the arrogant attitude of the trust champlons, who have refused to listen to any kind of compromise; and, secondly, the information which has just recently leaked out in an unoefficial way that the much-vaunted superfortly of the Krupp armor over the Harveylzed steel is mainly a matter of imagination and business sagacity seeking for a plausible excuse for raising the pice.

As an illustration, the Consul General recites this fact that the Krupp factory some time ago furnished field gurs to the German Government at 31.145 each, but other competition entered the field and Krupp reduced the price to 3457 in order to get the contracts, and is now furnishing them at that price.

Woman's Nature home can be completely happy without them, yet the ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass is usually so full of suffering and danger that she looks forward to the critical hour with apprehension and dread. MOTHER'S PRIEND, by its penetrating and soothing properties, allays names, nervousness and all unpleasant feelings, and so prepares the system that she passes through the event safely with but little suffering, as numbers have testified and said, "it is worth its weight in gold." It is sold by all druggists. Book containing valuable information to all, mailed free, upon application to the BRADPIRLD REGULATOR COMPART, Atlanta, Georgia.
